JAVAS (Just Another Victory Among Sisters) Christmas Party
A gathering of mentors and mentees celebrate physical, emotional, and spiritual freedom.

Christmas is the time to appreciate the fact that a King came to earth because He loves us. Have you ever heard of anything so bizarre...a King gave up His throne because He loves us? That is indescribable to me!

Rochelle is praising God today for the gift she received. An employer has given her a second chance. She started work at Wendy's. Thanks to you she has work clothes and non skid shoes for work.

Bethany is thanking God for the gift of opting out of two college classes. She starts back to school in January at TSU. Thanks to you she has a computer to take to her classes.

Beth is thanking God for the gift of a reuniting with her son and future husband. She has a job at IHOP. Thanks to you she has a month of bus passes. She is looking forward to getting married.

Pam is thanking God for freedom. She is free of drugs, employed, has a roof over her head, and food on the table. Thanks to you for helping meet her rent needs.

Merry Christmas from LTC and the hundred plus women you touched this year,

Vicki
